The applicant (hereinafter called the "Member") hereby applies for membership in, and agrees to purchase electric energy from Tri-County Electric Cooperative, Inc. (hereinafter called the "Cooperative") upon the following terms and conditions.

The Member will pay the Cooperative the sum of $25.00 which will constitute the Member's membership fee.

The membership fee will be returned if all service is disconnected at the Member's request or if service is discontinued because of violation of Cooperative operating tariffs.

The Member, by paying a membership fee and becoming a Member, assumes no personal liability or responsibility for any debts or liabilities of the Cooperative, and it is expressly understood that under law a Member's private property cannot be attached for any such debts or liabilities.

The Member agrees to purchase and pay for electric service in accordance with the Cooperative's tariff. Monthly, the Cooperative will mail to the Member, a statement for service provided. Member agrees to pay the total amount shown on the invoice within sixteen (16) days from its date of issuance.

The Member will comply with and be bound by the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws of the Cooperative, and such rules and regulations adopted by the Cooperative's Board of Directors.

A Member may request that additional services be provided under a single membership. The Member shall be held responsible for payment of all accounts opened under their membership.

The Member agrees that Cooperative personnel will be granted access to all fixtures and facilities used in the delivery of electric service. The Cooperative and its personnel are authorized to perform maintenance, right-of-way clearing, meter reading and system upgrades upon prescribed property as deemed necessary by the Cooperative.

The Member acknowledges that all poles, wires, transformers and other facilities installed by the Cooperative on the property described in the Electric Line Easement and Right-Of-Way, shall remain the property of the Cooperative. Removal of previously mentioned equipment shall be at the option of the Cooperative upon termination of electric service to said property.

The electric energy which the Cooperative agrees to furnish the Member may be limited, cut off, interrupted for repairs and / or causes that may be deemed necessary by the Cooperative and where a known dangerous condition exists for as long as the condition exists.

The acceptance of this application by the Cooperative shall constitute an agreement between the Member and the Cooperative, and the agreement shall become effective on the date signed. If this agreement is for new construction, the Cooperative shall commence monthly billing within ten (10) days of the completion date of the construction.

The Member understands that the Cooperative's primary distribution circuits offer single-phase protection only. Any multi-phase equipment installed by the Member must incorporate the use of protective devices that will prevent damage to the member's equipment should single phasing occur. The Cooperative will assume no liability for equipment damage resulting from a single phasing condition.

The Member hereby grants to the Cooperative all rights, privileges and easements necessary or incidental upon all roads, streets, or highways abutting said property to construct, operate, replace, repair and perpetually maintain facilities used in the distribution or transmission of electric energy. The Member agrees to execute and deliver to the Cooperative any conveyance, grant or instrument which the Cooperative shall deem necessary or incident for said purpose. The Cooperative shall have the right of access to said facilities for repair and service upon discontinuance of service for any reason, or to remove the same.

The applicant hereby assigns, transfers and sets over to the Cooperative the total book value of all capital credits which are now or may hereafter be credited to his/her account on the books of the Cooperative, and which are or may hereafter be available for retirement pursuant to proper action of the Board of Directors and the Cooperative, all such amounts to become due and payable to the Cooperative two (2) years after the Cooperative shall have made a bona fide attempt to pay said amounts to the party whose signature is upon this document and has not succeeded in doing so.

Copies of your rights as a customer, electric service rates and tariffs relating to service are available to the Member at each of the Cooperative's business offices shown below.

We welcome the opportunity to serve you and hope that you will take the time to familiarize yourself with the service available through your Cooperative. If you have any questions please feel free to contact one of the Cooperative's offices shown below.

Instructions for Completing Application for Membership and Electric Service.

Dear Prospective Member,

Please complete and sign Section 1 of the Application for Membership and Electric Service and return it along with the following fees.

$25.00 Membership Fee
$20.00 Service Connect Fee
Security Deposit or Letter of Credit

A Security Deposit equal to 1/6th of the actual or estimated annual billing will be required of all applicants for electric service who are unable to provide a satisfactory letter of credit from their previous electric service provider. The dollar amount of the security deposit can be determined by contacting the Cooperative using one of the telephone numbers shown above.*

* If you can obtain a letter of credit from a recent electric provider that states your past 12 consecutive months of service had no more than two late payments and that you were never disconnected for nonpayment of service, we will waive the security deposit. You may have a letter of credit from your previous electric provider faxed directly to us at (817) 444-7679 or bring it in with your completed application and applicable fees.

If you cannot appear in person to apply for service, please include a legible photo copy of your current driver's license or state photo identification.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact one of our offices shown in the heading above. We thank you for allowing us the opportunity to provide your electric service and we welcome you as a member owner of Tri-County Electric Cooperative, Inc.
